Sample Application for a Grant from First Fed Foundation

Spring 2023 Grant Cycle

Applications for the Spring 2023 grant cycle will be accepted from January 1, 2023 until 11:59 p.m. on Wednesday, March 1, 2023.

Thank you for your interest in applying for a grant from First Fed Foundation (formerly First Federal Community Foundation).

Before beginning your application, please do your due diligence on our grantmaking by reviewing the Foundation's Grant Guidelines & FAQs (<http://bit.ly/ffcf-faq>), the organizations that we have funded to date (<https://bit.ly/31ioYV2>), sample profoma budget, and our most recent annual report (<https://www.firstfedcf.org/2021-annual-report/>).

Complete the application in one session, as the online form cannot be saved for completion at a later date. Once you submit it, changes will not be accepted. To assist you in preparing your submission, you can view the application in its entirety here: <http://bit.ly/ffcf-sample-grant>.

Save a copy of your application by printing it from your computer's internet browser or by clicking the button that reads "Send me a copy of my responses," located just above the Submit link at the end of this form.

IMPORTANT: YOUR APPLICATION IS NOT COMPLETE UNTIL ALL OF THE FOLLOWING REQUIRED DOCUMENTS ARE RECEIVED BY 11:59 p.m. on Wednesday, March 1, 2023.

Send the following required documents and, if you choose, the optional letters of recommendation, limited to no more than three, in one email to Jan.Simon@FirstFedCF.org. Attach the documents, preferably in one PDF, and include your name, organization name, email address, and phone number.

Required documents are:

1. Your organization's 501(c)(3) determination letter.
2. The proforma budget for the project or program for which you're requesting grant funding.

Please Note: The online application must be completed in one session; it cannot be saved for completion at a later date. Therefore, to assist you in preparing your submission, this document contains the questions that are on the actual application. Do not use this document to apply for a grant; it is provided for information purposes only.

You may access the online grant application here.

Click here for the proforma budget template we would like you to submit with the other required documents. If you prefer to use your own budget format, be sure to include the information outlined on the template, in a similar presentation.
